

2013 Oregon Listing Results

Paul T. Sullivan, McMinnville, OR

“Thank You” to the 121 people who sent in their listing results this year, and “Welcome” to the 17 new people who have joined us for the first time. I have carried forward numbers previously submitted by another 118 people, including 15 departed friends. The combined 2013 Listing Results represent the efforts of 239 birders.

I would like to encourage those who have stopped reporting to join us once again. I carry forward numbers reported previously to give context to the tallies reported today. If your old numbers are out of date, send in new ones next year. I hope that by publishing these results, we can provide a timely picture of how many birds can be found around our wonderful state of Oregon, and who has seen them.

Participation in the Birds Photographed in Oregon category increased this year. We added three new listing categories: Favorite Refuge, Favorite Birding Spot, and Yard List. The initial response to these categories has been encouraging.

The full listing results can be found at the OBA website. Go to <http://www.orbirds.org/> and click on the listing tab.

Good birding, everyone!

Notable Milestones for 2013

Oregon Statewide Listing

Honorable Mention for 2013:

New birder Summitt Foltz-Moodie, age 8, inspired by “The Big Year” tallied 247 species in Oregon in 2013 with the help of her dad, Jim Moodie.

Malakai Lawrence, age 9, tallied 191 species in Baker County in 2013 with the help of his dad, James.

State life list of 400 species:

Congratulations to Ulo Kiigemagi and Roger Robb, who passed the threshold of seeing 400 species in Oregon.

Birds Photographed in Oregon (30 participants, 3 new):

Tom Crabtree tops this category with 425 species photographed in Oregon.

Motorless Listing (15 participants):

John Sullivan tops the life list category with 289 species in Oregon.

Thomas Meinzen tops the 2013 year list category with 213 species in Oregon.

County Listing

While it regularly happens that the leading birder in a county adds a couple species to his/her life list or does a big year, special mention should be given to those who make concerted effort and achieve a “quantum leap” in their county listing. This year James Lawrence surpassed the Baker County year list by 7 species. Don Coggsell advanced his Columbia County list by 6. Matt Hunter surpassed a Douglas County year list that had stood since 1983. John Fitchen claimed the top life list for Multnomah County, adding 3 species, and Adrian Hinkle passed a Multnomah County year list that had stood for a decade. Aaron Skirvin topped the previous Umatilla County list by 4 species.

Favorite Refuge (14 participants):

Paul Sullivan topped this category with 251 species reported at Malheur National Wildlife Refuge.

Favorite Birding Spot (17 participants):

Sylvia Maulding topped this category with 255 species reported at Fern Ridge WMA.
