

Oregon Birds Crossword Puzzle

Karen Kearney, 6875 S.W. 158th Avenue, Beaverton, OR 97007

ACROSS

- 2 Southwestern hummer that has recently appeared regularly in Bend
 4 Tillamook Co. pelagic trips start here
 9 Tim Shelmerdine found this rarity at Timothy Lake
 12 Sparrow-attracting noise
 13 National birders org.
 14 Nick Lethaby found this most famous bird of 1990
 16 Unidentified flying object
 18 Jim Johnson's Garganey was found here
 21 Sabine's Gull's bill's is yellow
 24 Rare warbler the Krabbe's found at Page Springs CG in 1990
 28 Number of Oregon birders who have seen 400+ spcs in Oregon
 29 Rare sparrow that summered on Stuckel Mt. last year
 31 Owen Schmidt, Oregon Birds _____
 32 Most are Larus
 33 Probably our "most wanted" grosbeak
 35 The Yellow-billed is highly sought after in June
 36 Stereotype of a birdwatcher
 38 Black Swift's breeding ground: _____ Creek Falls
 41 The Red-throated must fly right over Oregon
 42 Nocturnal raptors
 44 Heron's nesting grounds
 45 Large grayish mountain ground-dweller, first word
 46 45 Across, second word
 47 Tapping 2 pebbles together sounds like the Yellow _____
 48 Red-bodied, black-winged Piranga
 49 This uncommon sandpiper probably bred at Gold Bog

DOWN

- 1 Dark-backed, white-bodied albatross
 2 First-winter Black-legged Kittiwake sports a black one below the nape
 3 Oregon's newest oriole
 4 Lobe-toed waterbird
 5 Eastern thrasher that wintered in French Glen last year
 6 All-blue cousin to the Lazuli
 7 Terns that have invaded in recent summers
 8 The voice of the Portland Rare Bird Alert
 10 Valley of the Upland Sandpiper
 11 Phil Pickering found this gull at John Day Dam in 1989
 15 The one at Monmouth wasn't countable
 17 He's seen the most Oregon birds
 19 Murrelet discovered nesting in coastal old growth
 20 Rosy Finches can be found in November on Mary's _____
 22 Cavity-nesting eastern warbler
 23 Shearwater most likely to be seen in winter,

first word

- 25 A Florence non-birder hosted this famous finch last year
 26 Blackbird NOT found at Malheur
 27 What to do when you want to trespass on private property
 30 Fall plumage is lime green: _____-sided Warbler
 34 Common Yellowthroat's is black
 35 County most likely to produce an Allen's Hummingbird
 37 Bald and enormous (pl.)
 39 Number of Northern Hawk-Owl records in Oregon
 40 23 Down, second word
 43 Usually darker on Philadelphia than on Warbling

Crossword puzzle answer on page 112.

